COMPLIANCE COMMITTEE CHARTER

INTRODUCTION

This charter (the “Charter”) has been adopted to govern the activities of the Compliance Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board of Directors of Oppenheimer Holdings Inc. (“OPY”). This Charter is subject to the Corporate Governance Guidelines adopted by OPY.

PURPOSE

The purpose of the Committee is to provide a specific Board Committee focused on the (i) establishment and oversight of the compliance functions of OPY’s wholly - owned subsidiary, Oppenheimer & Co. Inc., and all other regulated OPY subsidiaries (OPY and all such subsidiaries being hereinafter collectively referred to as the “Company”) including the Company’s compliance management system, (ii) oversight of the Company’s compliance with any applicable laws, rules and regulations governing its businesses (including applicable state and Federal securities laws, rules and regulations, including rules of each applicable self-regulatory organization “SRO”), and (iii) oversight of the Company’s adherence to high ethical standards in all of its activities. The Committee shall not have responsibility for financial reporting, financial audit matters and internal controls over financial reporting as such matters shall remain within the primary responsibility of the Audit Committee.

COMPOSITION AND MEETINGS

The Committee shall consist of at least three members of the Board of Directors, all of whom are independent in accordance with the provisions of Rule 10C-1(b)(1) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, Section 303.A.02 of the rules of the New York Stock Exchange, as amended from time to time, and the Company’s Corporate Governance Guidelines.

The members of the Committee shall be appointed by the Board upon recommendation of the independent members of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. Candidates should possess experience in matters relating to supervision, regulatory compliance and/or compliance management. The members of the Committee may be removed by a majority of the independent members of the Board.

Upon the recommendation of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of the Board, the Committee shall select from among the Committee’s members a chairperson who will preside at each meeting of the Committee and, in consultation with other members of the Committee, shall set the frequency and length of each meeting and the agenda of items to be addressed at each meeting.

Each of the Company’s Global Chief Compliance Officer (“GCCO”), Chief AML Officer (“CAMLO”) and Director of Regulatory Oversight (“DRO”) will receive all notices of Committee Meetings and will attend each Committee Meeting or appoint a designee to attend and report to the Committee. The GCCO, CAMLO and DRO will each be responsible for providing regular reporting to the Committee regarding the preparation, implementation, and updating of the Company's compliance and supervision policies, procedures, programs, training, controls, and any other topics deemed necessary by the members of the Committee.

The Committee shall meet at least quarterly. Regularly scheduled Committee meetings will occur in conjunction with meetings of the Board when practical. The Committee and/or the chairperson of the Committee may, in their discretion, ask members of management, any directors or others to attend its meetings (or portions thereof) and to provide pertinent information, reports, and/or data as necessary. From time to time, the chairperson of the Committee may, in his or her discretion, call an executive session or special meeting of the Committee for the purpose of meeting with the members of the Committee.

The Committee will keep minutes of each meeting, which shall be distributed to all of the Committee's members and the Board. In addition, the Committee shall report to the Board after each Committee meeting, including a description of all matters reviewed and actions taken by the Committee.

The Committee may form, and where legally permissible, delegate authority to, subcommittees as the Committee deems appropriate or desirable.

(m) Receive periodic reports, no less than quarterly, from the GCCO, CAMLO, DRO and the Company's General Counsel (and more frequently if the information is deemed to be of material significance by one or more of those individuals) regarding (i) pending or anticipated government or SRO investigations, examinations, inquiries, demands or proceedings and material litigation, in each case which cover or would be expected to cover compliance with Federal and state securities and other laws, (ii) details and factual information regarding any material claim or pattern of claims alleging that the Company is not in compliance with Federal and state securities and other laws and/or other applicable laws and (iii) regulatory developments relevant to the Company's business;

(n) Review and approve revisions to fundamental Company compliance policies prior to implementation by management, including the Company's: (i) Code of Conduct and Business Ethics; (ii) Code of Ethics–Asset Management; (iii) Code of Conduct and the Importance of Personal Responsibility; (iv) Oppenheimer & Co, Inc. Principles of Good Corporate Behavior; and (v) Global Anti-Money Laundering Policy;

(o) Receive periodic reports (and background information deemed relevant by the GCCO, CAMLO, DRO and the Company's General Counsel), no less than quarterly, from the

GCCO, CAMLO, DRO and the Company's General Counsel (and more frequently if the information is deemed to be of material significance by one or more of those individuals) regarding the adoption and implementation of new policies or revisions to existing compliance policies and procedures other than those set forth in (n) above;

(p) Periodically receive a report from the Company's internal audit manager regarding any regulatory compliance audits undertaken during the previous year, including an analysis of any regulatory compliance risks raised by such audits.

(q) Order, direct and oversee any annual or periodic independent compliance or AML audit that the Committee deems necessary or appropriate, conducted by an independent firm deemed competent by the Committee to conduct such a compliance audit;

(r) Review the results of any annual or periodic independent compliance audit or AML audit with the independent auditing firm, including any significant matters regarding risk of non-compliance with Federal securities and other laws; and

(s) Undertake such other activities as are necessary or incidental to carrying out the foregoing duties and responsibilities.

Annual Evaluations and Reports

The Committee shall review and reassess this Charter for adequacy at least annually, including whether this Charter appropriately addresses the matters that are or should be within its scope, and make recommendations to the full Board for any changes as necessary.

The Committee shall address all matters that the Committee considers relevant to its performance, including at least the following: the adequacy, appropriateness and quality of the information and recommendations presented by the Committee to the Board, the manner in which they were discussed or debated, and whether the number and length of meetings of the Committee were adequate for the Committee to complete its work in a thorough and thoughtful manner.

The Committee shall deliver each year to the Board a report setting forth the results of its evaluation of this Charter including any recommended amendments to this Charter and any recommended changes to the Company's compliance policies or procedures.

Any amendments to this Charter, shall take effect only upon the approval of a majority of the independent directors of the Board.

OTHER ACTIVITIES

The Committee shall perform any other activities consistent with this Charter, the Company's by-laws and governing law, as the Committee or the Board deems necessary or appropriate.

OUTSIDE ADVISORS

The members of the Committee shall have the authority, in their sole discretion, to select, retain, oversee, compensate and terminate independent consultants as necessary to assist with the execution of its duties and responsibilities as set forth in this Charter. The members of the Committee shall have the authority, in their sole discretion, to select, retain, oversee, compensate and terminate independent outside legal counsel and such other advisors as it deems necessary to fulfill its duties and responsibilities under this Charter. The members of the Committee shall set the compensation, and oversee the work, of its outside legal counsel and other advisors. The members of the Committee shall receive appropriate funding from the Company, as determined by the members of the Committee in their capacity as members of a committee of the Board, for the payment of compensation to its consultants, outside legal counsel and any other advisors. However, the Committee shall not be required to implement or act consistently with the advice or recommendations of its consultants, legal counsel or other advisors, and the authority granted in this Charter shall not affect the ability or obligation of the Committee to exercise its own judgment in fulfillment of its duties under this Charter.
